Under Secretary, F.M.S.

No. 2407.—Draft of an Enactment to further amend “The Public Emergency Enactment, 1914.”—

DRAFT.

FEDERATED MALAY STATES.

ENACTMENT No. OF 191 .

An Enactment to further amend “The Public Emergency Enactment, 1914.”

[ , 191 ]

President of the Federal Council.

IT is hereby enacted by the Rulers of the Federated Malay States in Council as follows:

1. (i) This Enactment may be cited as “The Public Emergency Enactment, 1914, Amendment Enactment, 1916,” and shall come into force on the publication thereof in the Gazette.

Short title, commencement and construction.

(ii) This Enactment shall be read and construed as one with “The Public Emergency Enactment, 1914,” hereinafter called the “principal Enactment,” and any copies of the said Enactment printed after the commencement of this Enactment may be printed with the amendments made by this Enactment.

2. Section 17 of the principal Enactment is repealed and the following section is substituted therefor:

Repeal of section 17, and substitution of new section therefor.

“17. (i) The High Commissioner may at any time when a state of war exists between His Britannic Majesty and any country or State (such country or State and the inhabitants thereof being hereafter in this section referred to as ‘the enemy’) make regulations for securing the public safety and the defence of the Federated Malay

Regulations for the public safety.

States and as to the powers and duties for that purpose of persons employed in the Federated Malay States in the public service of the said States or in the service of His Britannic Majesty and of any other persons, and in particular may by such regulations make provision with regard to all matters coming within the classes of subjects hereinafter enumerated, that is to say:

- I. Censorship, and the control and suppression of publications, writings, maps, plans, photographs, communications and means of communication;
- II. Arrest, detention, exclusion, and deportation;
- III. Control of the harbours, ports, and territorial waters of the Federated Malay States, and the movements of vessels;
- IV. Transportation by land, air, or water, and the control of the transport of persons and things;
- V. Trading, exportation, importation, production, and manufacture;
- VI. Appropriation, control, forfeiture and disposition of property, and of the use thereof;

and may by such regulations authorize the trial by Courts Martial or Civil Courts, and in the case of minor offences by Courts of Magistrates, of persons committing offences against such regulations, and the infliction by such Civil Courts of the following punishments, that is to say—

- (a) in the case of Courts of Magistrates, imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both such imprisonment and fine; and
- (b) in the case of the Court of a Judicial Commissioner, penal servitude for life or any less punishment, or, in the case of offences where intention of assisting the enemy is proved, death or any less punishment.

(ii) For the purpose of the trial of a person for an offence against such regulations by Court Martial and the punishment thereof, the person may be proceeded against and dealt with as if he were a person subject to military law and has on active service committed an offence under section 5 of the Army Act:

Provided that where it is proved that the offence is committed with the intention of assisting the enemy a person convicted of such an offence by a Court Martial shall be liable to suffer death.

(iii) For the purpose of the trial of a person for an offence under the regulations by a Civil Court and the punishment thereof, the offence shall be deemed to have been committed either at the place in which the same actually was committed or in any place in which the offender may be.

(iv) The regulations may authorize a Court Martial or a Civil Court, in addition to any other punishment, to order the forfeiture of any goods in respect of which an offence against the regulations has been committed.

(v) All regulations made under this section shall be published in the Gazette.

PUBLIC EMERGENCY AMENDMENT.

OBJECTS AND REASONS.

By section 17 of "The Public Emergency Enactment, 1914," as amended by Enactment No. 9 of 1915, there is vested in the High Commissioner a general power to make, at any time when a state of war exists between His Britannic Majesty and any country or State, regulations for securing the public safety and the defence of the Federated Malay States.

The object of the present amendment is to repeal and re-enact with modifications the said section in order to remove doubts as to the particular classes of subjects which are to be deemed to fall within the scope of such regulations.

KUALA LUMPUR,
10th July, 1916.

M. H. WHITLEY,
