CIRCULAR.

DOWNING STREET,
19th June, 1916.

SIR,—I have the honour to transmit to you copies of an Appeal to all Britons Overseas, which has been issued by the Society of United Workers, asking them to conserve their resources during the continuation of the War by investing their money either in the War Loans of their respective Governments or, in the absence of local issues, in the War Loan of the Imperial Government.

2. I am entirely in sympathy with this Appeal, and I shall be glad if you will take the necessary steps for giving publicity to it in whatever manner may appear to you to be most suitable.

3. Arrangements for enabling persons in the Colonies and Protectorates to invest in the War Loans of the Imperial Government can, presumably, be made through the local banks and through any business firms who may be disposed to follow their example, and I have no doubt that these institutions will be willing to assist in circulating the Appeal.

I have, etc.,

IMPORTANT.

TO BRITONS OVERSEAS.

After two years of the War we see most clearly emerging a struggle of Economic Endurance, to be waged by the non-combatants; and that side whose non-combatants can finance it longest will win. Upon the issue depends the liberty of our Empire.

The whole German nation is supporting its armies. The utmost frugality is in force, and the nation's resources are being conserved in a remarkable way. To the recent War Loan, which realized 535 millions, there were 5,279,645 subscribers. Germany is not exhausted.

Britain, who must buy her food and raw material abroad, and lend her allies more than a million pounds a day, has at last realized that every single citizen is called upon for his or her maximum effort. Through her Cabinet Ministers she has called upon the people for self-denial, for the utmost conservation of resources, and for the loan of every spare penny.

And the people, now that they understand this to be an economic struggle, are responding more and more. They are awakening fast. The national conscience is stirring. We intend to produce more, to consume less, and to adjust our whole economic outlook to the War.

Meanwhile, it is of the utmost importance that every Briton Overseas, man and woman, shall understand the position. We address all of British blood. We address Canadians, Australians, South Africans, Britons in the Crown Colonies and Protectorates, Britons in India and Burmah, Britons in the United States, in Latin America, in China, Britons wherever they may be on the face of the Earth; and we tell them this:

- (1) Time is on our side if our Empire can outlast Germany in money and resources; and it is beyond dispute that we can outlast her if we choose.

- (2) Our power so to do, depends entirely upon the individual conserving his resources, and making them available for the War.
- (3) This he can only do by producing more, consuming less, and lending every penny he can either to his own Government's War Loans or to those of the British Government.

HOW TO LEND.

CANADIANS, AUSTRALIANS, NEW ZEALANDERS	} Subscribe to the War Loans which your own Governments will issue.

BRITONS IN OTHER CROWN COLONIES AND PROTECTORATES	} Subscribe to any local War Loan. Where there is none, apply in London for 5% Exchequer Bonds, issued free of income tax.
BRITONS IN INDIA AND BURMAH	} Subscribe to any local loan. If there is none, apply in London for 5% Exchequer Bonds, issued free of income tax.

BRITONS IN OTHER FOREIGN COUNTRIES	} Apply in London for 5% Exchequer Bonds, issued free of income tax. Take the advice of some local British banker as to how you can best help the exchange in our favour.

LONDON,
July, 1916.

C. J. STEWART, Esq. (Public Trustee),
CHAIRMAN OF UNITED WORKERS,

DEAR SIR,

We most cordially endorse the Overseas propaganda which the United Workers propose to undertake. There is, in our judgment, no more important service which any non-combatant Briton can render to our cause, than to produce more, to consume less, and lend every penny he can to War Loans.

Yours sincerely,

CROMER.
