OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to provide that the refund of half of his contributions to which a bachelor contributor is entitled on retirement or removal from the service of the Government shall not be conditional on his having continued to contribute up to the date of such retirement or removal; to secure that the right of widowers without pensionable children and of bachelors to a refund of contributions shall not be lost by their transfer to the service of another Government; and to make provision for the continuance of contributions by widowers who are transferred to the service of another Government analogous to that now in force in the case of married and bachelor contributors.

The opportunity is taken to improve the interpretation of "contributor" in section 2 of the present law, and to eliminate from section 9 the reference to the "fund", no fund being now in existence.
