survive to and against executor or

Illustration.

A collision takes place on a railway in consequence of some neglect or default of the officials, and a passenger is severely hurt, but not so as to cause death. He afterwards dies without having instituted any suit. The cause of action does not survive.

(ii) The power of an executor to dispose of immovable property so vested in him is subject to any restriction which may be imposed in this behalf by the will appointing him, unless probate has been granted to him and the Court which granted the probate permits him by an order in writing, notwithstanding the restriction, to dispose of any immovable property specified in the order in a manner permitted by the order.

(iii) An administrator may not, without the previous permission of the Court by which the letters of administration were granted,

(vi) No probate or letters of administration shall be rendered invalid by reason of the endorsement or annexure required by the last preceding sub-section not having been made thereon or attached thereto, nor shall the absence of such an endorsement or annexure authorize an executor or administrator to act otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this section.

95. If an executor or administrator purchases, either directly or indirectly, any part of the property of the deceased, the sale is voidable at the instance of any other person interested in the property sold.

Purchase by executor or administrator of deceased's property.

96. When there are several executors or administrators, the powers of all may, in the absence of any direction to the contrary in the will or grant of letters of administration, be exercised by any one of them who has proved the will or taken out administration.

- (a) within six months from the grant of probate or letters of administration, or within such further time as the Court which granted the probate or letters may from time to time appoint, exhibit in that Court an inventory containing a full and true estimate of all the property in possession, and all the credits, and also all the debts owing by any person to which the executor or administrator is entitled in that character, and
- (b) in like manner within one year from the grant, or within such further time as the said Court may from time to time appoint, exhibit an account of the estate, shewing the assets which have come to his hands and the manner in which they have been applied or disposed of.

(ii) The Judicial Commissioners or any two of them, of whom the Chief Judicial Commissioner shall be one, may from time to time prescribe the form in which an inventory or account under this section is to be exhibited.

Collection of and dealing with the

102. The executor or administrator shall with all reasonable expedition and diligence collect the property of the deceased and the debts due to him and shall pay all debts due by the deceased's estate and the legacies under the will (if any), in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained, and shall forthwith proceed, when there is no minority or other special reason to the contrary, to hand over the residue of the estate (if any) to the person or persons entitled thereto and to make his final report to the Court setting forth the manner in which he has discharged his duties.

Expenses to be paid first.

103. Funeral expenses to a reasonable amount, according to the degree and quality of the deceased, and death-bed charges, including fees for medical attendance, and board and lodging for one month previous to his death, are to be paid before all other debts.

Expenses to be paid next after such expenses.

104. The expenses of obtaining probate or letters of administration, including the costs incurred for or in respect of any judicial proceedings that may be necessary for administering the estate, are to be paid next after the funeral expenses and death-bed charges.

certain services
to be next paid,
and then other debts.

105. Wages due for services rendered to the deceased within the three months next preceding his death by any labourer, artizan or domestic servant are next to be paid, and then the other debts of the deceased according to their respective priorities (if any).

Save as aforesaid, all debts
to be paid equally and rateably.

106. Save as aforesaid, no creditor shall have a right of priority over another, but the executor or administrator shall pay all such debts as he knows of, including his own, equally and rateably, as far as the assets of the deceased will extend.

PROBATE AND ADMINISTRATION.

107. Debts of every description shall be paid before any legacy.

Debts to be paid before legacies.

108. If the estate of the deceased is subject to any contingent liabilities, an executor or administrator is not bound to pay any legacy without a sufficient indemnity to meet the liabilities whenever they may become due.

Executor or administrator not bound to pay legacies without indemnity.

109. (i) If the assets, after payment of debts, necessary expenses and specific legacies, are not sufficient to pay all the general legacies in full, the latter shall abate or be diminished in equal proportions.

Abatement of general legacies; no preferential payment.

(ii) In the absence of any direction to the contrary in the will, the executor has no right to pay one legatee in preference to another nor to retain any money on account of a legacy to himself or to any person for whom he is a trustee.

110. Where there is a specific legacy and the assets are sufficient for the payment of debts and necessary expenses, the thing specified shall be delivered to the legatee without any abatement.

No abatement of specific legacy when assets sufficient to pay debts and expenses.

111. Where there is a demonstrative legacy and the assets are sufficient for the payment of debts and necessary expenses, the legatee has a preferential claim for payment of his legacy out of the fund from which the legacy is directed to be paid until such fund is exhausted, and if, after the fund is exhausted, part of the legacy still remains unpaid, he is entitled to rank for the remainder against the general assets as for a legacy of the amount of such unpaid remainder.

Right under demonstrative legacy when assets sufficient to pay debts and expenses.

112. If the assets are not sufficient to answer the debts and the specific legacies, an abatement shall be made from the latter rateably in proportion to their respective amounts.

Rateable abatement of specific legacies.

A has bequeathed to B a diamond ring, valued at $500, and to C a horse, valued at $1,000. It is found necessary to sell all the effects of the testator, and his assets, after payment of debts, are only $750. Of this sum $250 are to be paid to B and $500 to C.

113. For the purpose of abatement, a legacy for life, a sum appropriated by the will to produce an annuity, and the value of an annuity when no sum has been appropriated to produce it, shall be treated as general legacies.

Legacies treated as general for purpose of abatement.

CHAPTER IX.

EXECUTOR'S ASSENT TO A LEGACY.

114. The assent of the executor is necessary to complete a legatee's title to his legacy.

Assent necessary to complete legatee's title.

Illustrations.

(a) A by his will bequeaths to B his municipal mortgages which are on deposit with the Chartered Bank. The Bank has no authority to deliver the securities, nor B a right to take possession of them, without the assent of the executor.

(b) A by his will has bequeathed to C his house in Ipoh in the tenancy of B. C is not entitled to receive the rents without the assent of the executor.

20

No. 4 of 1920.

Executor's assent to specific legacy.

115. (i) The assent of the executor to a specific bequest shall be sufficient to divest his interest as executor therein and to transfer the subject of the bequest to the legatee, unless the nature or the circumstances of the property require that it shall be transferred in a particular way.

(ii) This assent may be verbal, and it may be either express or implied from the conduct of the executor.

Illustrations.

(a) A horse is bequeathed. The executor requests the legatee to dispose of it, or a third party proposes to purchase the horse from the executor, and he directs him to apply to the legatee. Assent to the legacy is implied.

(b) The interest of a fund is directed by the will to be applied for the maintenance of the legatee during his minority. The executor commences so to apply it. This is an assent to the whole of the bequest.

(c) A bequest is made of a fund to A, and after him to B. The executor pays the interest of the fund to A. This is an implied assent to the bequest to B.

(d) Executors die after paying all the debts of the testator but before satisfaction of specific legacies. Assent to the legacies may be presumed.

(e) A person to whom a specific article has been bequeathed takes possession of it and retains it without any objection on the part of the executor. His assent may be presumed.

Conditional assent.

116. The assent of an executor to a legacy may be conditional, and if the condition is one which he has a right to enforce, and it is not performed, there is no assent.

Illustrations.

(a) A bequeaths to B his lands at Klang, which at the date of the will and at the death of A, were subject to a charge for $10,000. The executor assents to the bequest on condition that B shall within a limited time pay the amount due on the charge at the testator's death. The amount is not paid. There is no assent.

(b) The executor assents to a bequest on condition that the legatee shall pay him a sum of money. The payment is not made. The assent is nevertheless valid.

Assent of executor to his own legacy.

117. (i) When the executor is a legatee, his assent to his own legacy is necessary to complete his title to it in the same way as it is necessary when the bequest is to another person, and his assent may in like manner be express or implied.

(ii) Assent shall be implied if in his manner of administering the property he does any act which is referable to his character of legatee and is not referable to his character of executor.

Illustration.

An executor takes the rent of a house or the interest of municipal securities bequeathed to him and applies it to his own use. This is assent.

Effect of executor's
assent.

118. The assent of the executor to a legacy gives effect to it from the death of the testator.

Illustrations.

(a) A legatee sells his legacy before it is assented to by the executor. The executor's subsequent assent operates for the benefit of the purchaser and completes his title to the legacy.

(b) A bequeaths $1,000 to B with interest from his death. The executor does not assent to this legacy until the expiration of a year from A's death. B is entitled to interest from the death of A.

PROBATE AND ADMINISTRATION.

21

119. An executor is not bound to pay or deliver any legacy until the expiration of one year from the testator's death.

Time for payment of legacies.

Illustration.

A by his will directs his legacies to be paid within six months after his death. The executor is not bound to pay them before the expiration of a year.

CHAPTER X.

PAYMENT AND APPORTIONMENT OF ANNUITIES.

120. Where an annuity is given by the will and no time is fixed for its commencement, it shall commence from the testator's death, and the first payment shall be made at the expiration of a year next after that event.

Commencement of annuity when no time fixed by will.

121. Where there is a direction that the annuity shall be paid quarterly or monthly, the first payment shall be due at the end of the first quarter or first month, as the case may be, after the testator's death and shall, if the executor think fit, be paid when due; but the executor shall not be bound to pay it till the end of the year.

When annuity,
to be paid
quarterly or monthly, first falls due.

122. (i) Where there is a direction that the first payment of an annuity shall be made within one month or any other division of time from the death of the testator, or on a day certain, the successive payments shall be made on the anniversary of the earliest day on which the will authorizes the first payment to be made.

Date of successive payments when first payment directed to be made within given time or on day certain.

(ii) If the annuitant dies in the interval between the times of payment, an apportioned share of the annuity shall be paid to his representative.

CHAPTER XI.

INVESTMENT OF FUNDS TO PROVIDE FOR LEGACIES.

123. Where a legacy, not being a specific legacy, is given for life, the sum bequeathed shall at the end of the year be invested in securities of one of the classes enumerated in sub-section (ii) of section 109 of "The Companies Enactment, 1917," or in such other securities, or securities of such other classes, as the Judicial Commissioners or any two of them, of whom the Chief Judicial Commissioner shall be one, may from time to time by notification in the Gazette prescribe, and the proceeds thereof shall be paid to the legatee as the same shall accrue due.

Investment of
sum bequeathed
where legacy, not specific,
given for life.

124. (i) Where a general legacy is given to be paid at a future time, the executor shall invest a sum sufficient to meet it in any of the securities referred to in, or prescribed from time to time under, section 123.

Investment of
general legacy, to be paid at future time.

(ii) The intermediate interest shall form part of the residue of the testator's estate.

125. Where an annuity is given and no fund is charged with its payment or appropriated by the will to answer it, an English or Indian Government annuity of the specified amount shall be purchased; provided that if no such annuity can conveniently be obtained, then a sum sufficient to produce the annuity shall be invested for that purpose in any of the securities referred to in, or prescribed from time to time under, section 123.

Where no fund charged with or appropriated to annuity.

22

No. 4 OF 1920.

Transfer to residuary legatee subject to contingent bequest.

126. Where a bequest is contingent, the executor is not bound to invest the amount of the legacy but may transfer the whole residue of the estate to the residuary legatee (if any) on his giving sufficient security for the payment of the legacy if it shall become due.

Investment of residue bequeathed for life, with direction to invest in specified securities.

127. Where the testator has bequeathed the residue of his estate to a person for life with a direction that it shall be invested in certain specified securities, so much of the estate as is not at the time of his death invested in securities of the specified kind shall be converted into money and invested in such securities.

Time and manner of conversion and investment.

128. (i) Such conversion and investment as are contemplated by the last preceding section shall be made at such times and in such manner as the executor in his discretion thinks fit.

(ii) Until such conversion and investment shall be completed, the person who would be for the time being entitled to the income of the fund when so invested shall receive interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum upon the market value (to be computed as of the date of the testator's death) of such part of the fund as shall not yet have been so invested.

Where minor entitled to immediate payment of bequest.

129. (i) Where a legatee entitled by the terms of the bequest to the immediate payment or possession of the money or thing bequeathed is a minor, and there is no direction in the will to pay it to any person on his behalf, the executor or administrator shall pay or deliver the same into the Court at the place where the probate was, or letters of administration with the will annexed were, granted, to the account of the legatee and such payment into Court shall be a sufficient discharge for the money so paid.

(ii) Such money, when paid in, shall be invested in any of the securities referred to in, or prescribed from time to time under, section 123, which securities, with the interest thereon, shall be transferred to the person entitled thereto, or otherwise applied for his benefit as the Court may direct.

CHAPTER XII.

PRODUCE AND INTEREST OF LEGACIES.

Legatee's title to produce of specific legacy.

130. The legatee of a specific legacy is entitled to the clear produce thereof, if any, from the testator's death.

Exception.—A specific bequest contingent in its terms does not comprise the produce of the legacy between the death of the testator and the vesting of the legacy. The clear produce of it forms part of the residue of the testator's estate.

Illustrations.

(a) A bequeaths his flock of sheep to B. Between the death of A and delivery by his executor the sheep are shorn, or some of the ewes produce lambs. The wool and lambs are the property of B.

(b) A bequeaths his municipal securities to B but postpones the delivery of them till the death of C. The interest which falls due between the death of A and the death of C belongs to B and must, unless he is a minor, be paid to him as it is received.

(c) The testator bequeaths all his four per cent. Indian Government promissory notes to A when he shall complete the age of 21. A, if he complete that age, is entitled to receive the notes, but the interest which accrues in respect of them between the testator's death and A's completing 21 forms part of the residue.

PROBATE AND ADMINISTRATION.

131. The legatee under a general residuary bequest is entitled to the produce of the residuary fund from the testator's death.

Residuary legatee's title to produce of residuary fund.

Exception.—A general residuary bequest contingent in its terms does not comprise the income which may accrue upon the fund bequeathed between the death of the testator and the vesting of the legacy. Such income goes as undisposed of.

(a) The testator bequeaths the residue of his property to A, a minor, to be paid to him when he shall complete the age of 21. The income from the testator's death belongs to A.

(b) The testator bequeaths the residue of his property to A when he shall complete the age of 21. A, if he complete that age, is entitled to receive the residue. The income which has accrued in respect of it since the testator's death goes as undisposed of.

132. Where no time has been fixed for the payment of a general legacy, interest begins to run from the expiration of one year from the testator's death.

Interest when no time fixed for payment of general legacy.

Exceptions.—(1) Where the legacy is bequeathed in satisfaction of a debt, interest runs from the death of the testator.

(2) Where the testator was a parent or a more remote ancestor of the legatee, or has put himself in the place of a parent of the legatee, the legacy bears interest from the death of the testator.

(3) Where a sum is bequeathed to a minor with a direction to pay for his maintenance out of it, interest runs from the death of the testator.

133. Where a time has been fixed for the payment of a general legacy, interest begins to run from the time so fixed. The interest up to such time forms part of the residue of the testator's estate.

Interest when time fixed.

Exception.—Where the testator was a parent or a more remote ancestor of the legatee, or has put himself in the place of a parent of the legatee, and the legatee is a minor, the legacy bears interest from the death of the testator, unless a specific sum is given by the will for maintenance, or unless the will contains a direction to the contrary.

134. The rate of interest shall be six per cent. per annum.

Rate of interest.

135. No interest is payable on the arrears of an annuity within the first year from the death of the testator, although a period earlier than the expiration of that year may have been fixed by the will for making the first payment of the annuity.

No interest on arrears of annuity within first year after testator's death.

136. Where a sum of money is directed to be invested to produce an annuity, interest is payable on it from the death of the testator.

Interest on sum to be invested to produce annuity.

CHAPTER XIII.

THE REFUNDING OF LEGACIES:

137. An executor who has paid a legacy under the order of the Court is entitled to call upon the legatee to refund in the event of the assets proving insufficient to pay all the legacies.

Refund of legacy paid under Court's order.

24

No. 4 OF 1920.

No refund if paid voluntarily.

138. When an executor has voluntarily paid a legacy, he cannot call upon a legatee to refund in the event of the assets proving insufficient to pay all the legacies.

Refund when legacy becomes due on performance of condition within further time allowed.

139. (i) When the time prescribed by the will for the performance of a condition has elapsed without the condition having been performed and the executor has thereupon, without fraud, distributed the assets, in such case, if further time has under sub-section (ii) been allowed for the performance of the condition and the condition has been performed accordingly, the legacy cannot be claimed from the executor, but those to whom he has paid it are liable to refund the amount.

(ii) Where the will requires an act to be performed by the legatee within a specified time, either as a condition to be fulfilled before the legacy is enjoyed or as a condition upon the non-fulfilment of which the subject-matter of the bequest is to go over to another person or the bequest is to cease to have effect, the act must be performed within the time specified, unless the performance of it be prevented by fraud, in which case such further time shall be allowed as is requisite to make up for the delay caused by such fraud.

When each legatee liable to refund in proportion.

140. When the executor has paid away the assets in legacies and is afterwards obliged to discharge a debt of which he had no previous notice, he is entitled to call upon each legatee to refund in proportion.

Distribution of assets.

141. (i) Any executor or administrator, after giving notice in the most public manner reasonably possible, as, for instance, by the publication of notices in newspapers likely to be seen by creditors, by the distribution of handbills in Asiatic languages, or in other manner reasonably likely to attract the attention of creditors and others, calling upon all concerned to send in to him their claims against the estate of the deceased and stating his intention to proceed to a distribution of assets on and after a certain date, of which not less than three months' notice shall be given, shall, at the expiration of the time so named, be at liberty to distribute the assets, or any part thereof, in discharge of such lawful claims as he knows of and shall not be liable for the assets so distributed to any person of whose claim he has not had notice at the time of such distribution.

(ii) Nothing herein contained shall prejudice the right of any creditor or claimant to follow the assets, or any part thereof, in the hands of the persons who may have received the same respectively.

Creditor may call upon legatee to refund.

142. A creditor who has not received payment of his debt may call upon a legatee who has received payment of his legacy to refund, whether the assets of the testator's estate were or were not sufficient at the time of his death to pay both debts and legacies, and whether the payment of the legacy by the executor was voluntary or not.

When legatee
unsatisfied or compelled to refund cannot oblige one paid in full to refund.

143. If the assets were sufficient to satisfy all the legacies at the time of the testator's death, a legatee who has not received payment of his legacy, or who has been compelled to refund under the last preceding section, cannot oblige one who has received payment in full to refund, whether the legacy was paid to him with or without suit, although the assets have subsequently become deficient by the wasting of the executor.

PROBATE AND ADMINISTRATION.

144. If the assets were not sufficient to satisfy all the legacies at the time of the testator's death, a legatee who has not received payment of his legacy must, before he can call on a satisfied legatee to refund, first proceed against the executor if he is solvent; but if the executor is insolvent or not liable to pay, the unsatisfied legatee can oblige each satisfied legatee to refund in proportion.

When unsatisfied legatee must first proceed against executor, if solvent.

145. The refunding by one legatee to another shall not exceed the sum by which the satisfied legacy ought to have been reduced if the estate had been properly administered.

Limit of refund by one legatee to another.

Illustration.

A has bequeathed $240 to B, $480 to C, and $720 to D. The assets are only $1,200 and if properly administered would give $200 to B, $400 to C, and $600 to D. C and D have been paid their legacies in full, leaving nothing to B. B can oblige C to refund $80 and D to refund $120.

146. The refunding shall in all cases be without interest.

Refund to be without interest.

147. The surplus or residue of the deceased's property, after payment of debts and legacies, shall be paid to the residuary legatee when any has been appointed by the will.

Residue after usual payments to be paid to residuary legatee.

148. Where

- (a) a person not having his domicile in the Federated Malay States has died leaving assets both in the Federated Malay States and in the country in which he had his domicile at the time of his death, and
- (b) there has been a grant of probate or letters of administration in the Federated Malay States with respect to the assets there and a grant of probate or letters of administration in the country of domicile with respect to the assets in that country,

Transfer of assets from Federated Malay States to executor or administrator in country of domicile for distribution.

the executor or administrator, as the case may be, in the Federated Malay States, after having given such notice as is mentioned in section 141 and after having discharged, at the expiration of the time therein named, such lawful claims as he knows of, may, instead of himself distributing any surplus or residue of the deceased's property to persons residing out of the Federated Malay States who are entitled thereto, transfer, with the consent of the executor or administrator, as the case may be, in the country of domicile, the surplus or residue to him for distribution to those persons.

CHAPTER XIV.

LIABILITY OF AN EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR FOR DEVASTATION.

149. When an executor or administrator misapplies the estate of the deceased or subjects it to loss or damage, he is liable to make good the loss or damage so occasioned.

Misapplication of estate.

Illustrations.

- (a) The executor pays out of the estate an unfounded claim. He is liable to make good the loss caused by the payment.
- (b) The deceased had a valuable lease renewable by notice, which the executor neglects to give at the proper time. The executor is liable to make good the loss caused by the neglect.
- (c) The deceased had a lease of less value than the rent payable for it but terminable on notice at a particular time. The executor neglects to give the notice. He is liable to make good the loss.

26

No. 4 OF 1920.

Neglect to get in any part of property.

150. When an executor or administrator occasions a loss to the estate by neglecting to get in any part of the property of the deceased, he is liable to make good the amount.

Illustrations.

(a) The executor absolutely releases a debt due to the deceased from a solvent person, or compounds with a debtor who is able to pay in full. The executor is liable to make good the amount so lost.

(b) The executor neglects to sue for a debt till the debtor is able to plead the law for the limitation of suits, and the debt is thereby lost to the estate. The executor is liable to make good the amount of the debt.

CHAPTER XV.

RE-SEALING OF PROBATES AND LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION
GRANTED UNDER STATE LAWS.

Power of Court
to re-seal.

151. Where probate or letters of administration in respect of the estate of a deceased person has or have been granted by a competent Court of any State of the Federated Malay States before the commencement of this Enactment, such probate or letters of administration may, on being produced to the Court, be sealed with the seal of the Supreme Court of the Federated Malay States and thereupon shall be of the like force and effect and have the same operation throughout the Federated Malay States as if granted under this Enactment.

Application to be by petition.
