12. When a bill of sale has been duly discharged by any of the above-mentioned methods, it shall be the duty of the presiding Magistrate of the Court wherein the bill of sale is registered to write the word "discharged," with his signature and official title, across the face of both the original and the duplicate bill of sale (the original being brought to him for the purpose) and to file both the original and the duplicate in the Court.

13. When any part-payment is made in respect of money secured by a bill of sale, a written acknowledgment of the same shall be signed by the lender, or his duly authorized agent, upon the back of the original and duplicate bill of sale, and such signature shall be attested by a Magistrate or an advocate and solicitor of the Supreme Court.

14. No receipt given for any payment or part-payment under this Enactment shall be exempt from stamp-duty by reason of being endorsed on the bill of sale; but where a receipt is given in duplicate under section 13 and the one which is endorsed upon the original bill of sale is duly stamped, that which is endorsed upon the duplicate bill of sale shall be exempt from stamp-duty.

15. (i) The registration of every bill of sale must be renewed at least once in every twelve calendar months, and if a period of twelve calendar months elapses from the date of registration or last renewed registration of a bill of sale without a renewal or further renewal (as the case may be) the bill of sale shall become void.

21. Notwithstanding anything herein before contained, a Judicial Commissioner, on being satisfied that the omission to register a bill of sale or to renew the registration thereof within the prescribed time or to file a declaration of transfer in the prescribed form was accidental or due to inadvertence or to absence from the Federated Malay States, may, in his discretion, order such omission to be rectified on such terms and conditions (if any) as to security, notice by advertisement or otherwise, or as to any other matter, as he may think fit to direct.

22. A Judicial Commissioner may order a memorandum of satisfaction to be written on any registered duplicate of a bill of sale upon being satisfied that the debt, if any, for which such bill was made or given has been satisfied or discharged.

(a) that every such amendment shall be made only in accordance with a resolution passed by a majority at a general meeting of the society;

(b) that not less than fifteen days' notice has been given of such general meeting; and

(c) that not less than half of the members of the society are present at such meeting;

Provided also that in the case of societies whose members reside at different places, the attendance at a general meeting may, with the approval of the Registrar, be by proxy and not in person;

Provided also that in the case of non-agricultural societies to which this provision may, by written order of the Registrar, be declared to apply, one-quarter of the members or 100 members whichever is less, present at the meeting shall be sufficient for the amendment of by-laws. But no by-laws shall be amended under this provision unless two-thirds of the members present vote in favour of the proposal.
(2) Two copies of such amendments to the by-laws and one copy of the resolution of the general meeting passing the amendments shall be submitted to the Registrar with an application for the registration of the amended by-laws; such application shall be signed by the Chairman and two members of the committee and shall contain information as to—

(a) the date of general meeting at which the amendments were passed;
(b) the number of days' notice given to convene the general meeting;
(c) the total number of members in the society at the date of such general meeting;
(d) the numbers of members present at the meeting;
(e) the number of members who voted in support of the amendments.

If the Registrar approves the amendments he will register them, retain one copy in his office and return the other to the society with a certificate of registration.

In this rule the term "Amendment" includes a new by-law and a resolution rescinding a by-law.

10. (1) No person shall be admitted to membership of a registered society who does not satisfy the requirements of the Enactment or who is legally or mentally disabled or who is a bankrupt or against whom a conviction stands of an offence punishable with imprisonment or, in the case of a society with unlimited liability, who is already a member of another society of unlimited liability.

(2) Any member who may at any time be found to be disqualified for any of the reasons mentioned in clause 1 above shall be removed from the society.

(3) In case of doubt, the decision of the Registrar as to whether a person is, or is not, eligible for membership of a registered society, or is, or is not, liable to removal from membership of a registered society shall be final.

(4) Every person before being admitted to the membership of a society shall sign a declaration that he will be bound by the existing by-laws of the society, and by any modification of, or addition to, such by-laws that may be legally effected during the period of his membership. A person who is already a member by reason of his having joined the application for the registration of the society, shall be required, under pain of expulsion if he refuses, to sign such declaration within one month of registration.

11. Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules or in the by-laws of a registered society as to the mode of summoning a general meeting, and the object, time and place of such meeting, the Registrar or any person authorized by the Registrar may summon at any time a special general meeting of the society in such manner and at such time and place as he may direct and may specify what matters shall be discussed by the meeting. Such meeting will have all the powers of and be subject to the same rules as a general meeting called according to these rules or the by-laws of the society.
12. Subject to such limit as the Registrar may impose from time to time on its maximum borrowing powers and the maximum rate of interest to be paid on its borrowings, a registered society may borrow funds to be used in its business from members and non-members.

Subject to the limit imposed by the Registrar a registered society shall determine annually at a general meeting the maximum limit of indebtedness in respect of existing and new borrowings which may be incurred in the coming year; such limit may be modified at a subsequent general meeting.

13. The issue of bonds or debentures by a registered society shall be subject to such conditions as the Registrar may prescribe.

14. The shares of the society may not be hypothecated to that society by its members as security for a loan.

15. With the previous sanction of the Registrar, any society may invest its funds or a portion thereof in the purchase or leasing of land or in the construction of buildings or in such other manner as may be necessary for the conduct of its business and the welfare of the co-operative movement.

16. Every registered society shall form and maintain a reserve fund to which at least one-fourth of the net profits must be carried.

17. The reserve fund of a registered society shall be indivisible and no member shall be entitled to claim any specified share in it.

18. On the dissolution of a registered society, the reserve fund shall be applied—

(a) to discharging such liabilities of the society as may remain undischarged after the enforcement in full of the liability of the individual members of the society;

(b) to the repayment of share capital paid up, if any;

(c) to the payment of dividend upon such share capital at a rate not exceeding 10 per cent. per annum for any period or periods for which no dividend has been paid.

19. Any balance of the reserve fund which may remain after making the payments specified in rule 18 shall be applied to such local object or objects of public utility as may be selected by a majority of the votes of the members of the society (as they existed at the date of the dissolution) assembled in a special meeting and approved of by the Registrar. If within three months of the dissolution of the society the members fail to make a selection which is approved of by the Registrar, the latter shall credit the above-mentioned balance of the reserve fund to the reserve fund of the co-operative society, if any, to which the society was affiliated, or, if the society was not affiliated to any other society shall place the said balance on deposit in some co-operative or other bank until a new co-operative society with a similar area of operations is registered, in which event it shall be credited to the reserve fund of such society.

20. In no registered society shall the rate of dividend paid on shares exceed 12 per cent. per annum without the sanction of the Registrar.
21. (1) Any member of a registered society may in writing in the presence of at least two witnesses attesting the same or by a declaration duly made nominate any person or persons to whom his share or interest or the value of such share or interest and all other monies referred to in section 22 of the Enactment that may be due to him on the death of such member be paid or transferred under the provisions of the said section and may in similar manner from time to time revoke or vary such nomination provided that the value of the member's share or interest shall be represented by the sum actually paid by the member to acquire such share or interest unless the by-laws provide for calculation thereof otherwise.

(2) Every registered society shall keep a register of all persons so nominated.

(3) The nominee may become a member of the society only if admitted in accordance with the by-laws.

22. Where a member or person claiming through a member of a society is insane, and no committee of his estate or trustee of his property has been duly appointed, the society may, when it is proved to the satisfaction of the committee that it is just and expedient so to do, pay or transfer the share or interest of such member or the value of such share or interest or all other monies referred to in section 22 of the Enactment to any person whom they shall judge proper to receive the same on his behalf, whose receipt shall be a good discharge to the society for any sum so paid. In such cases the value of the member's share or interest shall be represented by the sum actually paid by the member to acquire such share or interest unless the by-laws provide for calculation thereof otherwise.

23. Every registered society shall be liable to pay such audit fees as the Registrar may prescribe.

24. (1) A society shall keep such accounts and books as may from time to time be prescribed or approved by the Registrar and shall publish a balance sheet annually in such manner as the Registrar may by general or special order prescribe.

(2) No society of which any member is a registered society shall take into consideration any balance sheet at its annual general meeting or make any distribution of its profits by way of dividend or bonus or otherwise among its members, unless and until the balance sheet (for the period during which such profits have accrued) shall have been certified to be a true and correct statement of the position of the said society by the Registrar or some person authorized by him in that behalf.

25. Every society shall from time to time furnish the Registrar with such information and with such statements and returns as may be called for by him.

26. Any dispute touching the business of a society between members or past members of the society or persons claiming through a member or past member, or between a member or past member or persons so claiming and the committee or any officer, shall be referred to the Registrar. Reference may be made by the Committee or by the society by resolution in general meeting or by any party to the dispute, or if the dispute concern a sum due from a member of the committee to the society, by any member of the society.
27. The Registrar on receiving notice of such dispute, shall, at his discretion, either decide the dispute himself or shall appoint an arbitrator or shall refer it to three arbitrators of whom one shall be nominated by each of the parties to the dispute and the third shall be nominated by the Registrar who shall appoint the chairman. If any party to a dispute fails to nominate an arbitrator within fifteen days the Registrar may himself make the nomination.

28. The Registrar or the arbitrator or arbitrators shall have power to administer oaths, to require the attendance of all parties concerned and witnesses, and to require the production of all books and documents relating to the matter of the dispute, by a summons delivered orally or sent by hand or by registered post to the party’s last known address or served by the nearest Civil Court having jurisdiction in the area in which the society operates and shall further have power to order the expenses of determining the dispute to be paid either out of the funds of the society or by such party or parties to the dispute as he may think fit.

29. The arbitrator appointed by the Registrar, or the arbitrators to whom the Registrar has referred a dispute shall record a brief note in English or the vernacular of the evidence of the parties and witnesses who attend and upon the evidence so recorded and after consideration of any documentary evidence produced by either side, a decision or award, as the case may be, shall be given in accordance with justice, equity and good conscience and shall be reduced to writing. In the absence of any party duly summoned to attend, the dispute may be decided against him in default. In cases where three arbitrators are appointed, the opinion of the majority shall prevail.

30. Any person duly summoned by the Registrar or arbitrator or arbitrators by summons served by a Civil Court to appear before him or them, or to produce any document, and failing to do so may be proceeded against in accordance with Chapter XVI of “The Civil Procedure Code, 1918.”

31. Any party aggrieved by an award of an arbitrator or arbitrators may appeal to the Registrar within one month of the date of the award.

32. An award of the arbitrators, if not appealed against within one month, and any decision or order of the Registrar shall, as between the parties to the dispute, not be liable to be called in question in any Court and shall be in all respects final and conclusive.

33. Decisions and awards mentioned in rule 32 shall, on application to any Civil Court having local jurisdiction, be enforced in the same manner as a decree of such Court.

34. In proceedings held under rules 26 to 29 no party shall be represented by any legal practitioner, except with the permission of the Registrar or arbitrator or arbitrators.

35. For the purpose of section 26 of the Enactment a copy of an entry in a book of a society may be certified by a declaration dated and subscribed by the Chairman and Secretary of the society that it is a true copy of such entry, that such entry is contained in one of the ordinary books of the society and was made in the usual and ordinary course of business and that such book is still in the custody of the society.
36. Except for the appeal allowed under section 38 of the Appeals Act, no appeal shall lie against any order of the Registrar passed in any matter dealt with in the Act or in the rules framed under the Act.

37. The following procedure shall be adopted by a liquidator appointed under section 41 of the Act:

liquidation proceedings as he may think proper.

(e) The liquidator may empower any person to make collections and to grant valid receipts on his behalf.

the society, the liquidator shall:

members and past members, respectively, to the assets of the society, and the costs of liquidation are to be borne.

(k) The liquidator shall deposit the funds and other assets of the dissolved society which are collected by him or which may come into his possession as liquidator, in such manner and in such place as may from time to time be determined by the Registrar.

(l) The liquidator shall every three months submit to the Registrar a report stating the progress made in winding up the affairs of the society, and shall on completion of the liquidation proceedings submit a final report and make over to the Registrar all books, registers, and accounts belonging to the society and all books and accounts relating to such proceedings kept by him.

(m) The liquidator shall also submit such information and particulars with regard to the liquidation proceedings as may from time to time be required by the Registrar.

(n) The Registrar shall fix the amount of remuneration, if any, to be paid to the liquidator. The remuneration shall be included in the costs of liquidation which shall be payable out of the assets in priority to all other claims.

38. No appeal shall lie to any Civil Court from any order of the liquidator.
