No. 24 of 1922.

PART I.

PROVISIONS REGULATING PROCEEDINGS IN ENQUIRIES
INTO MENTAL DISORDERS.

3. (i) The Court may, on such application as is hereinafter mentioned, make an order directing an enquiry whether any person subject to the jurisdiction of the Court who is alleged to be mentally disordered is or is not of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs. Court may order enquiry.

(ii) Such order may also contain directions for enquiries concerning the nature of the property belonging to the person alleged to be mentally disordered, the persons who are his relatives or next of kin, the time during which he has been of unsound mind or such other questions as to the Court shall seem proper.

4. Application for such enquiry may be made by any person related by blood or marriage to the person alleged to be mentally disordered, or by any public officer nominated, by the Resident of the State wherein the application is to be made, for the purpose of making the application. Application by whom made.

5. (i) Reasonable notice of the time and place appointed for the enquiry shall be given to the person alleged to be mentally disordered. Provisions as to notice of enquiry.

(ii) If it shall appear that the person alleged to be mentally disordered is in such a state that personal service on him would be ineffectual, the Court may direct such substituted service of the notice as it shall think proper.

(iii) The Court may also, if it think fit, direct a copy of such notice to be served upon any person related by blood or marriage to the person alleged to be mentally disordered.

6. At any time after the application for the enquiry the Court may require the person alleged to be mentally disordered to attend at such convenient time and place, within ten miles of his place of residence, as the Court may appoint, for the purpose of being personally examined by the Court or by any person from whom the Court may desire to have a report of his mental capacity and condition, and the Court may also make an order authorizing any person or persons named therein to have access to the person alleged to be mentally disordered for the purpose of a personal examination. Power to examine person alleged to be mentally disordered.

7. On the day fixed for the enquiry, after receiving such reports and hearing such evidence and arguments as it may think fit, the Court shall decide whether the person who is alleged to be mentally disordered is or is not of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs and shall also decide any other questions as to which an enquiry has been directed. Questions to be decided by Court.

8. The Court may make such order as may appear just respecting the costs of the enquiry and may include therein such remuneration to physicians and surgeons as the Court shall deem reasonable; provided that no order for the payment of costs shall be made against the Resident of a State or against any public officer nominated by a Resident under the provisions of section 4. Order as to costs.

MENTAL DISORDERS.

Appointment of committees

9. If the Court shall decide that the person who is alleged to be mentally disordered is of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs, the Court may, if it shall think fit, appoint a committee or committees of the person and estate of such person and may make such order, if any, as to the remuneration of the committee or committees out of such person's estate, and as to the giving of security by the committee or committees, as to the Court may seem fit.

Powers of management of estate of mentally disordered person.

10. The Court may on the appointment of a committee or committees of the person and estate of a mentally disordered person direct by the order of appointment or by any subsequent order that the person to whom the charge of the estate is committed shall have such powers for the management thereof as to the Court shall seem necessary and proper, reference being had to the nature of the property, whether movable or immovable, of which the estate may consist. But such powers shall not extend to the sale or charge of the estate or any part thereof or to the letting of any immovable property, unless for a term not exceeding three years.

Power of Registrar to receive proposal.

11. The Registrar of the Court shall be at liberty without an order of reference to receive any proposal and conduct any enquiry respecting the management of the estate of a mentally disordered person if such proposal relate to any matter which the committee of the estate has not been empowered by an order under the last preceding section to dispose of. The Registrar may likewise without reference receive and enquire into any proposal relating to the sale or charge of the estate or of any part thereof or to the letting of any immovable property for a term exceeding three years.

Registrar to report to Court.

12. The Registrar shall report to the Court on the proposal and the Court shall, subject to the provisions of this Enactment, make such order upon the report and respecting the costs as shall under the circumstances seem just.

What relative may attend proceedings.

13. The Court shall once in the matter of each enquiry, and may afterwards from time to time, determine whether any one or more and, if any, how many and which of the relatives or next of kin shall attend before the Registrar at the cost of the estate in any proceeding connected with the management thereof and, if any such relative or next of kin is an infant, may from time to time appoint a fit person to be his guardian for the purposes of such proceedings.

Orders may be made on petition.

14. The Court may, on application made to it by petition concerning any matter whatsoever connected with the enquiry, make such order, subject to the provisions of this Enactment, respecting the application and the costs thereof and of the consequent proceedings as shall under the circumstances seem just.

Dealings with mentally disordered person's property for certain purposes.

15. The Court may, if it appears to be just or for the benefit of the mentally disordered person, order that any property, movable or immovable, and whether in possession, reversion, remainder, contingency or expectancy, be sold, charged or otherwise disposed of as may seem most expedient for the purpose of raising money to be applied for any of the following purposes:

- (a) the payment of his debts, including any debt incurred for his maintenance or otherwise for his benefit;
- (b) the discharge of any encumbrance on his estate;

No. 24 OF 1922.

- (c) the payment of or provision for the expenses of his future maintenance and the maintenance of his family, including the expenses of his removal to Europe, India, China or elsewhere, when he shall be so removed, and all expenses incidental thereto;
- (d) the payment of the costs of any enquiry under this Enactment and of any costs incurred by order or under the authority of the Court.

16. The committee of the mentally disordered person's estate shall in his name and on his behalf execute all such conveyances and instruments of transfer or charge relative to any sale, charge or other disposition of his estate as the Court shall order. In like manner, such committee shall under the order of the Court exercise all powers whatsoever vested in a mentally disordered person, whether the same are vested in him for his own benefit or in the character of trustee or guardian.

Committee to execute instruments.

17. Where a person having contracted to sell or otherwise dispose of his estate or any part thereof afterwards becomes mentally disordered, the Court may, if the contract is such as the Court thinks ought to be performed, direct the committee of the estate to execute such conveyances and to do such acts in fulfilment of the contract as it shall think proper.

Performance of contract.

18. If a member of a partnership firm be found to be mentally disordered, the Court may, on the application of the other partners or of any person who appears to the Court to be entitled to require the same, dissolve the partnership; and thereupon, or upon a dissolution by decree of Court or otherwise by due course of law, the committee of the estate may in the name and on behalf of the mentally disordered person join with the other partners in disposing of the partnership property upon such terms and shall do all such acts for carrying into effect the dissolution of the partnership as the Court shall think proper.

Partner found to be mentally disordered.

19. Where a mentally disordered person has been engaged in business the Court may, if it appear to be for the benefit of his estate that the business premises should be disposed of, order the committee of the estate to sell and dispose of the same, and the moneys arising from such sale shall be applied in such manner as the Court shall direct.

Disposal of business premises.

20. Where a mentally disordered person is entitled to a lease or under-lease and it appears to be for the benefit of his estate that it should be disposed of, the committee of the estate may by order of the Court surrender, assign or otherwise dispose of the same to such person for such valuable or nominal consideration and upon such terms as the Court shall think fit.

Committee may dispose of lease.

21. Where any stock or Government or municipal securities or any shares in a company (transferable within the Federated Malay States or the dividends of which are payable there) are standing in the name of, or are vested in, a mentally disordered person beneficially entitled thereto or a committee of the estate of a mentally disordered person or a trustee for him, and the committee or trustee dies intestate or himself becomes mentally disordered or is out of the jurisdiction of the Court, or it is uncertain whether the committee or trustee be living or dead, or he neglects or refuses to transfer the stock, securities or shares or to receive and pay the dividends to a new committee or trustee or as he directs within fourteen days after being required by him to do so, then the Court may order some fit person to make such transfer or to transfer the same and to receive and pay over the dividends in such manner as the Court may direct, and such transfer or payment shall be valid and effectual for all purposes.

Transfer of stock of mentally disordered person.

Transfer of property of mentally disordered person residing out of the Federated Malay States.

22. Where any property situate in the Federated Malay States is standing in the name of or vested in any person residing out of the Federated Malay States, the Court, upon being satisfied that such person has been declared of unsound mind and that his personal estate has been vested in a committee, curator or manager according to the laws of the place where he is residing, may order some fit person to make such transfer of the property, or of any part thereof, to such committee, curator or manager or otherwise, and also to receive and pay over any proceeds or profits thereof as the Court may think fit; and any act done in pursuance of such order shall be valid and effectual for all purposes.

Power to order maintenance without appointing committee.

23. If it appears to the Court, having regard to the situation and condition in life of the mentally disordered person and his family and the other circumstances of the case, to be expedient that his property should be made available for his or their maintenance in a direct and inexpensive manner, it may, instead of appointing a committee of the estate, order that the property, if money or if of any other description the produce thereof when realized, be paid to such person as the Court may think fit to be applied for the purpose aforesaid, and all payments so made shall be a good discharge to the person making the same.

Temporary provision for maintenance of mentally disordered person.

24. If it appears to the Court that the unsoundness of mind of a mentally disordered person is in its nature temporary and that it is expedient to make temporary provision for his maintenance or for the maintenance of his family, the Court may in like manner as under the last preceding section direct his property or a sufficient part of it to be applied for the purpose aforesaid.

Annulling proceedings.

25. When any person has been found of unsound mind and it shall be shown to the Court, either on the application of such person or of any other person acting on his behalf or on the information of any other person, that there is reason to believe that such unsoundness of mind has ceased, the Court may make an order for enquiry whether such person is or is not still of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs. The enquiry shall be conducted in the same manner and subject to the same rules as are hereinbefore prescribed for an enquiry into the unsoundness of mind of a person alleged to be mentally disordered; and if it be found that the unsoundness of mind has ceased, the Court shall order all proceedings in such matter to cease or to be set aside on such terms and conditions as under the circumstances of the case shall appear proper.

Order for detention of mentally disordered person.

26. When upon any enquiry under this Part any person shall have been found by the Court to be of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs the Court shall either make an order for such person to be received into a mental hospital and send him in suitable custody, together with the order for his reception, to the mental hospital named in such order, or may if any friend or relative of such person shall undertake in writing to the satisfaction of the Court that such person shall be properly taken care of and shall be prevented from doing injury to himself or others make him over to the care of such friend or relative.

No. 24 OF 1922.

PART II.

PROVISIONS FOR THE RECEPTION AND DETENTION OF MENTALLY DISORDERED PERSONS IN MENTAL HOSPITALS.

27. The Resident of any State may establish in such State mental hospitals for the reception and detention of mentally disordered persons at such places as may be deemed proper. Establishment of mental hospitals.

28. (i) The management of every mental hospital and the care and the custody of its inmates shall be regulated according to such rules as shall from time to time be made under this Enactment by the Resident of the State wherein such mental hospital is situated. Management of mental hospitals.

(ii) The Resident of each State shall appoint for every mental hospital in such State not less than three visitors, one of whom at least shall be a Medical Officer.

29. Two or more of the visitors, one of whom shall be a Medical Officer, shall once at least in every month together inspect every part of the mental hospital or hospitals of which they are visitors and see and examine, as far as circumstances will permit, every patient therein and the order and certificate for the admission of every patient admitted since the last visitation of the visitors and shall enter in a book to be kept for that purpose any remarks which they may deem proper in regard to the management and condition of the mental hospital and the patients therein. Monthly inspection by visitors.

30. Except as otherwise in any Enactment provided no person shall be received into a mental hospital except upon Reception of patients.

- (a) the order of a Court under section 26 or 31 of this Enactment;
- (b) the order of a Medical Officer or registered Medical Practitioner under sections 32 or 34 of this Enactment;
- (c) his own application under section 35 of this Enactment;
- (d) the order of the Chief Secretary under section 42 of this Enactment; and no person received in accordance with the provisions of sections 32, 33 or 34 of this Enactment shall be detained for a longer period than is in section 36 provided except upon the written order of a Magistrate.

31. (i) The Court of a Judicial Commissioner or Magistrate may, for the purpose of determining whether a person committed for trial before such Court or charged before such Court with an offence is or is not of unsound mind, by written order direct that such person be received into a mental hospital, to be named in the order, and be there detained under observation during such period, not exceeding one month, as to the Court may seem expedient and may thereafter examine any members of the staff of such hospital who shall have had the patient under observation. Admission of accused persons for observation.

(ii) Every person ordered under this section to be received into a mental hospital for observation shall be received into the hospital named in the order and be there detained under observation for the period stated in the order or for such shorter period as the Court which made the order may direct.

MENTAL DISORDERS.

Apprehension of mentally-disordered persons wandering at large.

32. It shall be the duty of every Police Officer not below the rank of Inspector to apprehend all persons found wandering at large who are deemed to be mentally disordered and all persons believed to be dangerous by reason of mental disorder and to bring such persons without delay before a Medical Officer, who shall examine such person and

- (a) if satisfied that such person is not mentally disordered discharge him, or
- (b) if satisfied that such person is mentally disordered sign an order in the form A in the second schedule, or
- (c) if of opinion that such person should be kept under observation sign an order in the form B in the second schedule, and shall in either of the last two cases send such person in suitable custody to the mental hospital mentioned in the order.

Provision in case of cruel treatment or neglect of mentally disordered persons.

33. (i) If it shall appear to a Magistrate on the report of a Police Officer or the information of any other person that any person within the limits of such Magistrate's jurisdiction deemed to be mentally disordered is not under proper care and control or is cruelly treated or neglected by any relative or other person having the charge of him, the Magistrate may send for the person supposed to be mentally disordered and summon such relative or other person as has or ought to have the charge of him; and if such relative or other person be legally bound to maintain him, the Magistrate may make an order for such mentally disordered person to be properly cared for and treated, and if such relative or other person shall wilfully neglect to comply with the said order may sentence him to imprisonment of either description for any period not exceeding one month. If there be no person legally bound to maintain the person supposed to be mentally disordered, or if the Magistrate think fit so to do, he may send such person before a Medical Officer who shall thereupon proceed in the manner prescribed in the last preceding section.

(ii) It shall be the duty of every Police Officer not below the rank of Inspector to report to a Magistrate every such case of neglect or cruel treatment as aforesaid which may come to his knowledge.

(iii) In any State any Medical Officer or any Police Officer not below the rank of Inspector may, at such times as the Resident of such State shall fix, visit any supposed mentally disordered person in the care of any friend or relative of such person, for the purpose of ascertaining his condition, and any such friend or relative shall be legally bound to produce the said supposed mentally disordered person for the inspection of the visitor and in the event of his refusing to do so shall be liable to fine which may amount to five hundred dollars.

Order for reception into hospitals.

34. (i) Any person may be received into a mental hospital upon a request under the hand of some person in the form C in the second schedule together with such statement of particulars as is contained in the said form accompanied by an order in the form A or B in the second schedule signed by a Medical Officer or registered Medical Practitioner.

No. 24 OF 1922.

Provided that the Medical Officer or registered Medical Practitioner signing such order shall not be a relative, partner or assistant of the patient or of the person presenting the request.

(ii) No person shall sign any such request or statement of particulars unless he has attained the age of twenty-one years and has within seven days before the date of signing personally seen the person to whom the request or statement relates.

35. (i) Any person who is desirous of voluntarily submitting to treatment but whose mental condition is not such as to justify the issue of a certificate of mental disorder may be received into a mental hospital for care and treatment upon his making an application in writing to that effect. Reception of voluntary boarders.

(ii) No person so received shall be detained for more than seven days after he has given notice in writing to the Medical Superintendent of his intention or desire to leave the hospital except under and in accordance with the order of a Magistrate.

36. (i) The order of a Medical Officer or registered Medical Practitioner in the form A in the second schedule shall be a sufficient authority for the detention of such patient for a period not exceeding three months. Detention by order of Medical Officer or Medical Practitioner.

(ii) The order of a Medical Officer or registered Medical Practitioner in the form B in the second schedule shall be a sufficient authority for the detention of such patient for a period of fourteen days, and if in the opinion of the Medical Superintendent of the mental hospital it is expedient that such patient be detained for care and treatment until the next inspection by the visitors of the mental hospital after the expiry of such period.

37. (i) It shall be the duty of the visitors of every mental hospital upon being satisfied by the report of the Medical Superintendent and by personal inspection that any patient detained under the provisions of the last preceding section should be further detained for care and treatment, or that any voluntary boarder should be detained for care and treatment, to make application to a Magistrate of the First Class resident and having jurisdiction in the district in which the mental hospital is situated for an order of detention, and such Magistrate may thereupon with or without further enquiry at his discretion, sign a detention order ordering such patient to be detained in the mental hospital for care and treatment. Such order shall be sufficient authority for the further detention of such patient. Visitors to apply for Magistrate's order of detention.

(ii) The visitors may, when making an application for an order of detention under this section, order by endorsement upon the order in the form A or B that the patient be detained until the order of detention has been received or until the Magistrate has made other order in the case, and such endorsement shall be sufficient authority for the detention of the patient during such period.

38. Two of the visitors of any mental hospital, of whom one shall be a Medical Officer, may by writing under their hands order the discharge of any patient detained in such mental hospital otherwise than under section 31. When such order is given, if the patient is detained under the order of any public officer, notice of the order of discharge shall be immediately communicated to such officer. Order of discharge.

MENTAL DISORDERS.

Order of discharge on undertaking of relative.

39. When any relative or friend of a patient detained in any mental hospital under the provisions of section 32 or section 34 is desirous that such patient shall be delivered over to his care and custody, he may make application to any Magistrate of the First Class in the Federated Malay States, and the Magistrate, if he think fit, after consulting the Medical Superintendent in charge of such hospital and the visitors or one of them being a Medical Officer, and upon the undertaking in writing of such relative or friend to the satisfaction of the said Magistrate or Officer that such patient shall be properly taken care of and shall be prevented from doing injury to himself or others, may make an order for the discharge of such patient and such patient shall thereupon be discharged.

Temporary absence from mental hospital.

40. (i) Two of the visitors of any mental hospital, upon the recommendation in writing of the Medical Superintendent in charge of such hospital, may permit a patient to be absent from such hospital as long as they think fit.

(ii) If the patient has been admitted to the hospital upon the request of any other person in accordance with section 34 notice of such permission shall be given to the person making the request.

(iii) If before the expiration of the period of absence the certificate of a Medical Officer that it is no longer necessary that the patient be detained in the hospital for care and treatment be forwarded to the Medical Superintendent of the hospital or to the visitors thereof the patient shall be deemed to be discharged therefrom.

(iv) If upon the expiration of the period of absence the patient does not return to the hospital and no such certificate as is referred to in sub-section (iii) above has been received, the patient may be retaken as in the case of an escape.

Provision for removal of patients from one mental hospital to another.

41. The Resident of any State may order the removal of any patient from any mental hospital in such State to any other mental hospital in the Federated Malay States, and such order shall be sufficient authority for the removal of such patient and also for his reception into the mental hospital to which he is ordered to be removed.

Mentally disordered persons may be received into and detained in the Federated Malay States.

42. (i) Whenever as regards a mentally disordered person the Government of the Colony or of a protected State makes a representation to the Chief Secretary that it is expedient that such person should be removed to the Federated Malay States there to be detained for the purpose of medical treatment and supervision and makes provision to the satisfaction of the Chief Secretary for the payment of all expenses which may be incurred by the Federated Malay States or any of them in the reception, maintenance and detention of or otherwise in relation to such person, the Chief Secretary may by warrant under his hand direct such person when brought into the Federated Malay States to be received therein and conveyed to a mental hospital in such warrant mentioned and to be there detained until discharged in due course of law or until further order.

No. 24 OF 1922.

(ii) A mentally disordered person shall not be received into the Federated Malay States under the provisions of this Enactment unless he be accompanied by a certificate, signed by a registered Medical Practitioner employed in the public service of the Colony or of the protected State from which he is removed, in the form D in the second schedule, nor unless he be also accompanied by a statement in the form E in the second schedule.

43. Mentally disordered persons received into the Federated Malay States under the provisions of this Enactment shall be subject to the law for the time being in force in the States in which they are respectively received or detained relating to the custody and control of the persons and estates of patients and to their discharge from custody, provided that where any such patient is so discharged he shall, unless the Chief Secretary otherwise direct, be returned to the Colony or State from which he came.

Patients so received to be subject to local law.

44. (i) The representation mentioned in section 42 may be in the form F in the second schedule and shall in the case of the Colony be signed by the Colonial Secretary of the Straits Settlements and in the case of a protected State by the British Adviser or British Agent, as the case may be.

Forms of representation and warrant.

(ii) Every warrant purporting to be issued in pursuance of this Enactment and to be under the hand of the Chief Secretary shall be received in evidence in every Court in the Federated Malay States without further proof and shall be evidence of the facts therein stated and all acts done in pursuance of such warrant shall be deemed to have been authorized by law. Such warrant may be in the form G in the second schedule.

45. Whenever any patient is detained in any mental hospital in the Federated Malay States the Chief Secretary may direct that such patient shall be removed from such mental hospital and transmitted to any public mental hospital in the Colony under the provisions of the laws for the time being in force there for the detention of mentally disordered persons.

Removal of patient to Colony by order of Chief Secretary.

46. Any order for removal under the preceding section shall be addressed to the Medical Superintendent in charge of the mental hospital in which the patient is at the time detained and shall direct him to deliver the patient up to the person mentioned in such order at such time and at such place and in such manner as may be specified in the said order for the purpose of such transmission as aforesaid, and the patient shall be delivered up accordingly.

Contents of order.

47. The Chief Secretary may direct that any conditions prescribed by the provisions of any law for the time being in force in the Colony relating to the reception of mentally disordered persons from the Federated Malay States into the Colony and the detention therein of such persons shall be complied with.

Conditions prescribed by law of Colony to be complied with.

48. Any patient removed under this Enactment to a mental hospital in the Colony shall if he so desires on being discharged from such mental hospital be returned to the Federated Malay States, and shall not be subject to the provisions of the Passengers Restriction Enactment, 1921.

Discharged patient may be returned to the Federated Malay States.

MENTAL DISORDERS.

Amendment of orders.

49. If after the reception of any patient into a mental hospital it appears that the order or the medical certificate or certificates upon which he was received is or are defective or incorrect, the same may at any time afterwards be amended by the person or persons signing the same with the sanction of two or more of the visitors of the said mental hospital, one of whom shall be a Medical Officer.

Order and certificate justify detention and recapture.

50. Every person received into a mental hospital under any such order as is required by this Enactment accompanied, unless the order be under sections 26 or 31, by the requisite medical certificate may be detained therein until he be removed or discharged as authorized by this Enactment, and in case of escape may by virtue of such order be retaken by the manager of such mental hospital or any officer or servant belonging thereto or any other person authorized in that behalf by the said manager or any Police Officer and conveyed to and received and detained in such mental hospital.

Application of property in possession of mentally disordered person found wandering.

51. Any movable property which may be in the possession of a mentally disordered person found wandering at large may be sold by order of a Magistrate and the proceeds thereof (or such part of the same as may be necessary) applied towards the payment of the charge of the lodging and maintenance of such person and of any other expenses incurred on his behalf.

Application for order for the payment of cost of maintenance.

52. If any patient detained in a mental hospital under the provisions of Part II of this Enactment has an estate applicable to his maintenance, or if any person legally bound to maintain such patient has the means to maintain him, the Medical Superintendent of the mental hospital may apply to the Supreme Court for an order for the payment of the cost of maintenance of the patient.

Order of Court and enforcement thereof.

53. The Court shall inquire into the matter in a summary way, and on being satisfied that such patient has an estate applicable to his maintenance or that any person is legally bound to maintain and has the means of maintaining such patient may make an order for the recovery of the cost of maintenance of such patient, together with the costs of the application, out of the estate or from such person.

Such order shall be enforced in the same manner and shall be of the same force and effect and subject to the same appeal as a judgment or order made by the said Court in a suit in respect of the property or person therein mentioned.

Saving of liability of relatives.

54. The liability of any relative or person to maintain any mentally disordered person shall not be taken away or affected by any provision contained in this Enactment.

Offences against patients.

55. Any attendant, nurse, servant or other person employed in any mental hospital who

- (i) ill-treats or wilfully neglects any patient,
- (ii) permits or abets the escape or attempted escape of any patient, shall be guilty of an offence against this Enactment and shall be liable upon conviction to fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding one year or to both such imprisonment and fine.

12

No. 24 OF 1922.

PART III.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

56. Whenever in any law any reference to a lunatic or to lunacy or to a lunatic asylum or asylum is contained that reference shall be read as a reference to a mentally disordered person or to a patient within the meaning of this Enactment or as the case may be to mental disorder or to a mental hospital. Construction of laws.

57. Nothing contained in Part II shall be taken to interfere with the power of the Court of a Judicial Commissioner over any person found to be mentally disordered under Part I. Saving of powers of Court of Judicial Commissioner.

58. Any person aggrieved by any decision or order of the Court of a Judicial Commissioner made under the provisions of this Enactment may, except in the case of an order under section 31, appeal to the Court of Appeal; provided that no such appeal shall, except by special leave of the Court of Appeal or of a Judicial Commissioner, be brought after the expiration of one month from the date of the decision or order appealed against. Appeal.

59. (i) The Chief Secretary may from time to time make rules for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Enactment, and such rules upon publication in the Gazette shall have the force of law. Rules.

(ii) Any person committing a breach of any such rules shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

(iii) All such rules shall be laid before the Federal Council at the first meeting after such publication and may be amended or disallowed by resolution of the said Council.

(iv) Any rule so amended shall come into force as amended from the date of the passing of such resolution, and any rule disallowed shall cease to have force or effect from the date of such resolution.

60. (i) No prosecution shall be instituted or action brought against any person for anything done or bona fide intended to be done in the exercise or supposed exercise of the powers given by this Enactment or by any rules made thereunder— Provisions as to actions.

(a) without giving to such person one month's previous notice in writing of the intended prosecution or action and of the cause thereof;

(b) after the expiration of three months from the date of the act in respect of which the prosecution or action is intended to be instituted or brought;

(c) in the case of an action, after tender of sufficient amends.

(ii) In every action so brought it shall be expressly alleged that the defendant acted either maliciously or negligently and without reasonable or probable cause, and if at the trial the plaintiff shall fail to prove such allegation judgment shall be given for the defendant.

(iii) Though judgment be given for the plaintiff, the plaintiff shall not have costs against the defendant unless the Court before which the action is tried shall certify its approbation of the action.

14th December, 1922.

(Date of the first publication of the above notice in the Gazette, 29th December, 1922.)

"THE LABOUR CODE, 1912."

No. 7935.—In exercise of the powers vested in him by section 5 of "The Labour Code, 1912," the Chief Secretary to Government has appointed Mr. A. H. do R. Fonseca to be a Deputy Controller of Labour, with effect from the 9th December, 1922.

"THE LAND ENACTMENT, 1911."

ACQUISITION OF LAND FOR PUBLIC PURPOSE.

No. 7936.—It is hereby notified that it appears to the Resident of Selangor that land in the locality hereunder described is likely to be needed for a public purpose—that is to say, for the purpose of a railway; and it is further notified that the General Manager, Federated Malay States Railways, and any officers or workmen employed under him are authorized by the Resident:

- (i) To enter upon and survey and take levels of any land in the said locality;
- (ii) To dig or bore into the sub-soil;
- (iii) To do all other acts necessary to ascertain whether the land is adapted for such purpose;
- (iv) To set out the boundaries of the land proposed to be taken and the intended line of the work proposed to be made thereon;
- (v) To mark such levels, boundaries and line by placing marks and cutting trenches;
- (vi) Where otherwise the survey cannot be completed, the levels taken or the boundaries or line of the work marked, to cut down and clear away any standing crop, fence or jungle.

Provided that no person shall enter into any building or upon any enclosed court or garden attached to a dwelling-house (unless with the consent of the occupier thereof) without previously giving such occupier at least seven days' notice in writing of his intention to do so.

Dated at Kuala Lumpur, this 19th day of December, 1922.

[Sel. 5496/22.]

E. W. N. WYATT,
Secretary to Resident, Selangor.

DESCRIPTION OF LOCALITY.

All that land which lies within the mukims of Klang and Batu Tiga.

NOTICES OF CANCELLATION.

No. 7937.—Whereas by notices of demand served during the months of April, May, June and July, 1922, the under mentioned were required to pay at the Land Office, Kuala Selangor, the sums as enumerated against their respective names as set forth in the schedule, being arrears and costs recoverable under "The Land Enactment, 1911," and whereas the said sums have not been paid and cannot be recovered in the manner prescribed by section 70 of the said Enactment:

Dated at Kuala Kangsar, this 12th day of December, 1922.

MUHD. NURDIN,
Collector, Kuala Kangsar.

No. 7971.—Whereas by notices of demand served during the months of April, May, June and July, 1922, the under mentioned were required to pay at the Land Office, Kuala Selangor, the sums as enumerated against their respective names as set forth in the schedule hereto, being arrears and costs recoverable under "The Land Enactment, 1911," and whereas the said sums have not been paid and cannot be recovered in the manner prescribed in section 70 of the said Enactment:

Notice is hereby given that, at the expiration of four months from the date of this notice, I shall proceed to sell by public auction at the Land Office, Kuala Selangor, the land hereunder described (being the land in respect of which the arrears are due); and all persons are hereby warned against disposing of the land so described by sale, gift, or otherwise, and against receiving the same by purchase, gift, or otherwise.

No. 8146.—RULES FOR GOVERNMENT BUNGALOWS AT PORT DICKSON.—

1. These rules apply to Magnolia Bay Bungalow, Drumochter, the 2nd mile Sanatorium and the Annexe.
2. All applications for permits to occupy must be addressed to the District Officer, Port Dickson, who is in charge of all the bungalows: no application will be considered if received more than two months before the date on which accommodation is desired. Only under exceptional circumstances are permits granted for a longer period than fourteen days.

3. Magnolia Bay Bungalow, Drumochter and the 2nd mile Sanatorium are available for Government officers drawing salaries of not less than $400 per mensem: the Annexe is available for Government officers drawing any less salary. In the absence of any such applications the bungalows may be allotted to other Government officers or to private persons.

4. Government officers are allowed to occupy the bungalows rent free for fourteen days: private persons and Government officers, if allowed to occupy after fourteen days, are charged at the following rates:

Magnolia Bay Bungalow	$3.00 per diem
Drumochter	3.00 "
Sanatorium (one wing)	1.50 "
Sanatorium (whole)	3.00 "
Annexe	2.00 "

5. The caretaker is authorized to make the following charges for firewood and lighting per diem:

Magnolia Bay, Drumochter and Sanatorium (whole)	15 cents and 40 cents, respectively
Magnolia Bay, Drumochter and Sanatorium (whole)	10 " 25 "
Sanatorium (one wing)	15 " 30 "
Annexe	...

6. The caretaker will if required cater for visitors at the following rates:

Magnolia Bay and Drumochter	$3.25 per diem for each adult
Sanatorium and Annexe	3.00 " "

Children by arrangement. These rates do not include ice.

7. All permits are strictly non-transferable: fees are payable in respect of the whole period specified in the permit whether the accommodation reserved is actually occupied or not.

8. The caretaker in each bungalow is authorized to sell liquor to visitors at approved rates.

9. Visitors are held responsible for all damage done to the bungalow or its fittings: all breakages of crockery, glass, etc., must be paid for to the caretaker before visitors leave the bungalow: the caretaker is responsible for the collection of these sums and for making the necessary replacements: he is provided with a tariff showing the cost of various items.

10. A book is kept in each bungalow in which visitors are requested to enter the time of arrival and departure, any charges paid to the caretaker, and any suggestions or complaints.

11. The District Officer may, with the approval of the Resident of Negri Sembilan, decline to issue a permit to any person without giving any reason.

O. BECKETT,
District Officer, Port Dickson.

KUALA PILAH HOSPITAL,
2nd November, 1922.

No. 3151.—SANITARY BOARD, KUALA LUMPUR.—

Minutes of an ordinary meeting of the Kuala Lumpur Sanitary Board held at the Sanitary Board Offices on Wednesday, 13th December, 1922.

PRESENT: The Chairman (Mr. B. W. Elles), the Secretary (Mr. R. A. Boardman), the Protector of Chinese (Mr. T. W. H. Kingston), the Architectural Assistant to Director of Public Works (Mr. L. Kesteven), the Superintendent, Revenue Surveys (Mr. W. A. Gummer), the Executive Engineer, Town (Mr. Sydney Smith), the Collector of Land Revenue (Mr. W. R. Boyd), Mr. D. Freeman, Mr. D. F. Topham, J.P., Mr. Khoo Keng Hooi, Mr. Yap Tai Chi, Dr. E. T. MacIntyre, J.P., and Haji Mohamed Taib, J.P.

ABSENT: The Health Officer (Dr. F. V. Jacques), the Chief Police Officer (Mr. G. P. Cuscaden), and Dr. M. J. Ahern.

1. Minutes of last meeting are confirmed.
2. Storage of Matches: The Chairman again submits the draft of the proposed new by-law to replace the existing by-law 212. It is decided to bring the matter up again at the next meeting.
3. Hawkers, Sungei Besi: The Chairman proposes that the street vegetable-hawkers at Sungei Besi be allowed to sell inside the market upon payment of the monthly market fee of $1. The Board agrees.
4. Visible Petrol at 31, Java Street: The Chairman informs the Board that he will interview Mr. Perera again and report at the next meeting.
5. "The Vehicles Enactment, 1912": The Chairman raises the question whether bicycles as well as tricycles used for trade purposes should be taxed. The Board agrees with the views of the Chairman that the tax should only apply to bicycles for hire and such bicycles as are specially adapted for trade purposes and not ordinarily used otherwise.

6. General:

- (a) The Chairman mentions that the Central Labour Committee of the Kuala Lumpur District Planters' Association had approached him with a view to reducing coolies' wages. Mr. D. Freeman strongly opposes any reduction, and asks the Chairman to circulate the papers among the members. The Chairman undertakes to do this, and the subject is postponed till the next meeting.
- (b) The Chairman announces that the sub-committee had dealt with most of the assessment appeals and that a number of them had been referred to Mr. S. H. Langston who is dealing with those in regard to vacant and partly-occupied lands.
- (c) Dr. E. T. MacIntyre, J.P., calls the Chairman's attention to the lighting of Yap Kwan Seng and Princes Roads. The Chairman informs the Board that the matter has already been referred to the Electrical Engineer.
- (d) The Chairman asks the Board to appoint two unofficial members to assist him in going through the tenders for 1923. The Board appoints Messrs. Khoo Keng Hooi and Topham for that purpose.
- (e) Mr. Freeman: Why are bullock carts allowed to use the road between the Courts and the Mosque? This should not be used as a public road. The Chairman: Bullock carts are not permitted to use that road. When I saw the reference to the matter in the Malay Mail, I sent word to the Registrar of Vehicles to put a peon there in order to turn away carts that attempted to use that road, but, for some unaccountable reason, the Vehicles Department, instead of doing so, telephoned to the Police, and the result was that nothing was done. I have since seen the Registrar, and have ordered two notice boards, which are being prepared and will be ready in a day or two. They will be placed one at either entrance. Only vehicles taking people to the Court are to use that road in future.
- (f) Mr. Freeman: Some of the albitzia trees in Weld Road and Treacher Road are dangerous and should be removed. One on the right-hand side from town near "Garayln" is dying and very dangerous. The Chairman undertakes to bring the matter to the attention of the Town Superintendent.

7. Health report: The Health Officer's report on the health of Kuala Lumpur for the month of October, 1922, is submitted:

The population for the middle of October, 1922, is estimated at 85,457.

(2) Births: During the month 121 births were notified, giving an uncorrected birth-rate of 16.99 per mille.

(3) Deaths: The total number of deaths registered as having occurred within the Sanitary Board limits was 248, giving a crude death-rate of 34.82 per mille. The number of deaths among the resident population was 182, giving a corrected death-rate of 25.56 per mille. The corrected death-rate for the corresponding month of 1921 was 28.07 per mille. There were 43 deaths of infants under the age of one year. The infantile mortality rate (deaths under one year of age per 1,000 births) was 355.37.

(4) The diseases causing the greatest number of deaths were:

Diseases.	Resident.	Non-resident.	Diseases.	Resident.	Non-resident.
Malaria	22	8	Dysentery and diarrhoea ...	13	14
Tuberculosis, pulmonary	23	12	Convulsions	9	—
Pneumonia	20	5	Beri-beri	3	4
Other lung diseases ...	23	2

(5) Infectious Diseases: Sixteen cases of chicken-pox, one case of cerebro-spinal meningitis, one case of measles, six cases of mumps and two cases of typhoid (enteric) fever were reported.

(6) The total rainfall recorded at the General Hospital, Kuala Lumpur, for the month was 233.3 m.m. The greatest fall for the 24 hours ending 6 p.m. was 62.12 m.m. on the 24th. There was no recorded fall for 11 days. The mean temperatures for the month were: 9 a.m., 81.74 degrees; 3 p.m., 86.51 degrees; and 9 p.m., 76.54 degrees. The maximum temperature was 94 degrees on the 21st, and the lowest was 70 degrees on the 8th and 19th.

(7) Twenty-four samples of milk were sent to the Government Chemist for analysis during the month, three of which were found to be adulterated.

8. Plans: The following plans are approved:

- New Girls' School, lot 66, section 57, Middle Road;
- Cubicles, 2, Brickfields Road.

9. Returns, Etc.:

The following are laid on the table:

- (a) Revenue return for November, 1922;
- (b) Return of prosecutions for November, 1922;
- (c) Water consumption return for period 1st November, 1922, to 30th November, 1922: The daily average consumption was 2,689,766 $\frac{2}{3}$ gallons.

TENDERS INVITED.

PAWNBROKER'S LICENCE, PEKAN.

1. Tenders will be received at the office of the District Officer, Pekan, up to noon on the 1st March, 1923, for the right to receive a licence to act as pawnbroker under "The Pawnbrokers Enactment, 1914," in the under-mentioned area for three years from 15th April, 1923:

Pekan (the Sanitary Board area).

2. Tenders may be for the period of three years, and must state the amount of monthly rent offered in respect of the above area for each of the three years mentioned above.

3. The licence issued will be an exclusive one for the period and in respect of the area above mentioned.

4. Sealed tenders, marked "Pawnbroker's Licence Tender" on the outside of the envelopes, should be addressed to the District Officer, Pekan, Federated Malay States, and must be on printed forms which may be obtained on application at the office of the District Officer, Pekan, or the Chinese Protectorate, and must specify in full in English and in the vernacular language of the tenderer, the names, addresses and occupations of the persons tendering. In the case of firms the names and address of each partner, if any, and the "chop" must be similarly specified.

5. Each tender must be accompanied by a Bank or Treasury receipt for a cash deposit of $100 as a guarantee of good faith, otherwise it will not be considered. If any tenderer withdraws his offer after his tender has been accepted his deposit will be forfeited to the State. The deposits of unsuccessful tenderers will be returned.

6. Every successful tenderer will be required to enter into a bond in the prescribed form with two sureties approved by the Resident for the proper conduct of his business under the licence and for the payment of all fees during the term thereof, and also to deposit in cash as further security for the due performance of the obligations of the bond the amount of three monthly payments.

THE GOVERNMENT SAVINGS BANK

is established for the benefit of people desiring to save money. It is GUARANTEED BY GOVERNMENT.

The money deposited is perfectly secure and cannot be lost.

In the Federated Malay States

EVERY POST OFFICE is a SAVINGS BANK and deposits and withdrawals can be made at all hours during which the offices are open. The Savings Bank will accept for safe keeping any sum from excluding old cents and subject to maximum deposits of $2,000 in one year. Accounts may be opened by a person on his own behalf and on behalf of any minor of whom he is a relative or guardian. For those who can only

$1 to $5,000

SAVE a FEW CENTS a WEEK

there are forms to which postage stamps may be affixed and when they amount to $1 or $2 or more dollars they can be used to open a Savings Bank Account or for additional deposits in an existing account. The forms are supplied free at all Post Offices. This arrangement is specially recommended for training

SCHOOL CHILDREN in the THRIFT HABIT.

Every depositor is given a book in which all deposits and withdrawals are entered by the Post Office clerk. Pass books issued at any Post Office in the Federated Malay States may be used at any other Post Office in the Federated Malay States. A

RECEIPT from the HEAD OFFICE at Kuala Lumpur is sent direct to the depositor for every deposit made.

WITHDRAWALS

can be made from the Bank by sending notice to the Head Office at Kuala Lumpur whence a warrant is sent to the depositor who may call at the Post Office to collect the amount. Amounts not exceeding $10 can be withdrawn and amounts not exceeding $100 may be withdrawn

ON DEMAND

BY TELEGRAPH

on payment of an inclusive fee of $1.50 to cover cost of telegrams, etc.

SECRECY

is enforced by law and all officers of the Post Office are forbidden to divulge any information whatsoever respecting a depositor's account to any member of the public other than the depositor himself.

INTEREST

at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum is allowed on the minimum monthly balance to the credit of the depositor provided the balance is not less than $5.

No charge is made by the Post Office for its services and correspondence on Savings Bank business is sent free of postage. For apply to any Post Office. All Postmasters have special instructions to assist would-be depositors and to facilitate the conduct of Savings Bank business in every possible way and any difficulty experienced should be reported immediately to the Superintendent, Posts and Telegraphs.

FURTHER INFORMATION
