No. 8362.—Grant of facilities to Colonial Government officers “exercising judicial or magisterial functions” to be called to the Bar after keeping fewer terms than are prescribed in the existing Regulations.

CIRCULAR.

DOWNING STREET,
9th October, 1923.

SIR,—I have the honour to inform you that the Council of Legal Education have had under consideration representations which have been referred to them that facilities might be granted to enable Colonial Government officers “exercising judicial or magisterial functions” to be called to the Bar after keeping fewer terms than are prescribed in the existing Regulations.

2. The Council held that it would be wrong for them to accept any proposals that would in any material degree lower the standard of efficiency which the present Regulations seek to retain for the status of a member of the English Bar. They pointed out that it would be unfortunate that there should be a second quality barrister in the public service exercising judicial functions abroad, and a higher quality barrister not in the public service possibly practising before him; and that if any change in the Regulations was to be made it must ensure that in substance the persons affected would be as well qualified on their Call as those who complied with the ordinary Regulations.

3. The Council was not prepared, therefore, to accept any proposal which would affect the educational qualification of candidates for admission to the Bar as tested by examination, or would cut down unconditionally the existing number of terms to be kept before Call; but they felt that, without departing from the principle stated, it should be possible to give some assistance in the direction desired. They observed that at present, under the provision of Regulation 37, it was possible for an Inn of Court to dispense with two terms for special reasons, and that it was quite usual to exercise this power in the case of public servants resident abroad who had passed their examinations and could not keep the full number of terms by reason of expiration of leave. They suggested that, if a general dispensation of four terms were granted, it would in practice not amount to much more than a further dispensation of two or three terms, and that, if such a dispensation were granted only on condition that the applicant had read in chambers for a year with an approved practising barrister, there could be little objection to it on the ground of interfering with the efficiency of the training.

4. They therefore recommended that the Inns of Court should have it in their discretion to dispense with the keeping of four terms in all (i.e., excluding in these cases the power to dispense with two terms for special circumstances under Regulation 37), in cases where—

- I. The applicant is engaged abroad in the public service under the Foreign Office, the Colonial Office or the India Office, and is exercising judicial functions:
- II. He has read for four terms with a practising barrister in England approved by the Council of Legal Education:
- III. He is recommended for such dispensation by a Secretary of State. Provided that no student taking advantage of the concession contained in the Regulation be deemed eligible for Call to the Bar within three years of his admission as a student.

The Council would retain, however, the right given by Regulation 37 to the Inn of Court to dispense with any terms not exceeding two where the student has obtained a 1st class in the Final Examination.

5. The Council's recommendations have been approved by each of the four Inns of Court and by the Joint Committee on the Duties, Interests and Discipline of the Bar, and you will doubtless cause the introduction of this concession to be brought to the notice of any of the officers of your Government who are likely to be interested.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient, humble servant,
DEVONSHIRE.

No. 8730.—CUSTOMS DEPARTMENT.—SALARY SCHEME FOR OUT-DOOR OFFICERS.—

1. This scheme will come into effect on 1st January, 1924, and all Out-Door Officers of the Customs Department of whatever nationality will be transferred to this scheme from the Customs Scheme dated the 30th June, 1910, which is hereby cancelled, and from the scheme for Subordinate Malay Officers, 1920, which is hereby cancelled in so far as it affects officers of the Customs Department, from January 1st, 1924.

2. Appointments and promotions under this scheme will be made by the Commissioner of Trade and Customs. Any officer under the scheme will be liable to serve in any part of the Malay Peninsula at the discretion of the Commissioner of Trade and Customs.

3. The scheme comprises two grades to which the following rates of salary are attached:

Grade II, $240 a year rising by annual increments of $36 to $600 a year.

Grade I, $720 a year rising by annual increments of $36 to $1,200 a year.

There will in addition be a limited number of Prize Appointments at $1,800 a year.

4. Officers holding appointments under this scheme will become pensionable on reaching a salary of $564 a year.

5. Candidates for appointment to Grade II must be not less than 20 years of age and must have passed the highest standard at a vernacular school in the Federated Malay States or Straits Settlements or its equivalent. Preference will be given to those with a knowledge of English. Candidates will ordinarily receive the lowest salary of Grade II on first appointment but in cases where candidates have exceptional qualifications the Commissioner of Trade and Customs may appoint them at a higher rate.

6. Increments will be payable from the 1st day of January in each year.

7. To qualify for a salary of over $384 a year in Grade II an officer must satisfy the Commissioner of Trade and Customs that he has a sufficient knowledge of English to enable him to prepare receipts and keep a cash book in English, and a certificate to this effect must be given by the Customs Officer signing the increment certificate.

8. Promotion to Grade I is dependent on the occurrence of a vacancy in that grade and will generally be by selection of officers from Grade II.

No officer can be appointed or promoted to Grade I unless he has a good knowledge of Customs laws, rules and regulations and a fair knowledge of English (except where in the opinion of the Commissioner of Trade and Customs the nature of the duties to be performed by the officer do not require a knowledge of English). On reaching a salary of $792 an officer will be required to pass an efficiency bar and will draw no further increments until he has been certified as thoroughly competent in his duties.

9. Promotion to a Prize Appointment will be by selection only. No officer will be eligible for a Prize Appointment unless he possesses a good knowledge of English and a thorough knowledge of Customs regulations and procedure.

10. (i) Before any Out-Door Officer is permitted to draw any increment of salary provided by this scheme, a certificate to the effect that his conduct has been good and his service satisfactory will have to be furnished by the Head of his Office.

(ii) Such certificate of recommendation will be in the following form :

CERTIFICATE OF RECOMMENDATION FOR INCREMENT OF SALARY,
CUSTOMS OUT-DOOR OFFICERS SCHEME.

1. Name of Officer
2. Appointment
3. Date of first appointment
4. Grade
5. Salary now drawn
6. Date of promotion to the present grade
7. Date of commencement of present salary
8. Salary recommended
9. Increment to date from

I conscientiously certify from my own personal knowledge that the officer above named has given such satisfaction in his work as to justify an increase in his salary from $ _____ to $ _____, this increment being in accordance with the scheme for Out-Door Officers of the Customs Department.

Dated.....19.....

Head of Office.

Commissioner of Trade and Customs.

(iii) When a certifying officer has had less than three months' personal knowledge of the officer concerned he should refer to his predecessor in the appointment, and ask him for a personal supplementary certificate.

(iv) When his predecessor is absent from the country, the officer should submit the case to a higher authority for instructions, with his recommendations.

(v) It will be the duty of the Treasurer to see that the necessary certificate has been obtained before salary is drawn under these rules.

11. In the event of the refusal of the Head of the Office to sign certificate required by the last rule in respect of any Out-Door Officer who is due for an increment of salary the circumstances of the case will be specially reported to the Commissioner of Trade and Customs who will decide whether the increment may be paid or not and in the latter alternative whether it shall be stopped or deferred.

12. Nothing in this scheme will affect the position of officers thereunder as regards such rules and regulations as may from time to time have the force of law in respect of the following matters, viz. :

- (a) Maintenance of good conduct and discipline ;
- (b) Reduction in Grade ;
- (c) Dismissal.

The sub-committee had refused to consider a number of late appeals. The Chairman reported that a letter from N. K. A. R. Ramasamy Chetty had been received a few days ago praying for special consideration in the case of lot 449 on the grounds that it was partly built on, decided to refer to the sub-committee for their recommendations.

3. Papers dealing with tuberculosis were laid before the Board and a letter from the Principal Medical Officer, regarding the deaths from malaria and tuberculosis during the first nine months of the year and the several factors to be taken into consideration, read.

- (a) Improved diagnosis and treatment of malaria ;
- (b) Greater facilities for the public to obtain quinine ;
- (c) Better diagnosis of the causes of death in cases dying outside hospital ;
- (d) Most important of all, effective anti-malarial measures.

Affecting tuberculosis :

- (a) The influenza rate throughout the previous year ;
- (b) Seasonal incidence ;
- (c) The registration of all persons dying in any town after one month's residence as citizens of the town. (The question of adopting a different procedure is under consideration) ;
- (d) The arrival about the same date of a batch of incurable cases in the same stages of the disease and their subsequent deaths about the same time. This would account largely for the May, June and August figures.
