				Penang Municipal Financial Statement for February, 1922.

The following Notifications are, by command of His Excellency the Governor, published for general information.

F. S. JAMES,
Colonial Secretary.

No. 661.—THE following messages from His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, K.G., on leaving Malaya, are published for general information:—

To His Excellency the Governor, Singapore.

I am sailing from Singapore with sincere regret, and would ask Your Excellency to convey to the people of the Colony my heartfelt appreciation of the welcomes given me by all classes and races on the occasion of my first visit. I shall always retain the happiest memories of these last two days and look forward to the opportunity of renewing some day the many acquaintances which I made during my all too short stay in the Straits Settlements.

EDWARD P.

To His Excellency the High Commissioner for the Malay States.

On leaving the shores of Malaya, I send through Your Excellency to all in the Federated Malay States my warmest thanks for their hospitality and the cordiality of the welcome which they gave me at Port Swettenham and Kuala Lumpur. It was the greatest pleasure to meet Their Highnesses the Sultans of the Federation in their own land, and my one regret is that time prevented me from seeing more of the natural beauties of their country.

EDWARD P.

To His Excellency the High Commissioner for the Malay States.

I should be glad if Your Excellency would assure Their Highnesses the Rulers of the Malayan States outside the Federation of the gratification which their presence at Singapore afforded me. I was very pleased to have the opportunity of meeting them and of learning at first hand of the progress and development of their territories which the time at my disposal unfortunately did not enable me to visit.

EDWARD P.
