No. 314.—

“THE CUSTOMS REGULATIONS ENACTMENT, 1907”
(SELANGOR).

RULES made on the 13th day of January, 1914, relating to the importation and removal of dutiable liquors.

In exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 38 of “The Customs Regulations Enactment, 1907,” the Resident of Selangor, with the approval of the Chief Secretary to Government, makes the following rules to come into operation on the 1st day of March, 1914, and upon the coming into force of the said rules the rules published in Notification No. 892 in the Selangor Government Gazette of the 24th December, 1909, and rule 2 of the rules published in Notification No. 2087 in the Federated Malay States Government Gazette of the 16th August, 1912, shall be rescinded.

1. In these rules “dutiable liquors” means liquors which are for the time being subject to an import duty imposed under the “Customs Duties Enactment, 1898.”

2. No dutiable liquors shall be imported into the State except at Port Swettenham if imported by sea and at Tanjong Malim or Bangi if imported by rail; provided that no dutiable liquors shall be imported by rail unless import duty or excise duty shall have been paid thereon at an established Customs house of the Federated Malay States. The importation of dutiable liquors overland except by rail is prohibited.

3. All dutiable liquors imported into the State by sea shall, unless the import duty shall have been paid at the time of landing or unless permission shall have been obtained as hereinafter provided to remove such liquors under bond, be deposited in the Customs warehouse at the port of import, and shall not be removed therefrom until the importer or owner thereof shall have produced to the officer in charge of such Customs warehouse a permit to remove such liquors.

4. Every importer of dutiable liquors by sea shall at the time of importation make, personally or by his agent, to the proper officer of Customs at the port of import an application, substantially in the form A annexed hereto, for permission to land such liquors.

5. (i) Upon receipt of an application for permission to land dutiable liquors the proper officer of Customs shall,

(a) if the duty has been paid, issue to the importer or his agent a receipt for the amount paid and also a permit, substantially in the form B annexed hereto, for the removal of the liquors upon which the duty has been paid; and shall send to the officer in charge of the Customs warehouse the said application with an endorsement thereon stating that the duty has been paid; or

2

- (b) if the duty has not been paid and permission has not been granted as hereinafter provided for the removal of the liquor under bond, send to the officer in charge of the Customs warehouse the said application with an endorsement thereon authorizing the deposit of the liquor in the Customs warehouse ;
- (c) if the duty has not been paid but permission has been granted as hereinafter provided for the removal of the liquor under bond, issue to the importer or his agent a permit, substantially in the form C annexed hereto ; and shall send to the officer in charge of the Customs warehouse a duplicate of the said permit ; and shall take such other action as is hereinafter prescribed for the removal of dutiable liquors under bond.

(ii) Upon receipt of the authority referred to in paragraph (b) of clause (i) of this rule the officer in charge of the Customs warehouse shall superintend the deposit of the liquors in the warehouse, and shall thereafter give to the importer or his agent a receipt therefor, substantially in the form D annexed hereto, specifying the description and quantity of the liquors and shall immediately enter in the stock book provided for that purpose such details as may be required.

(iii) The said officer shall also record upon the said application the fact that the liquors have been deposited, with the date and hour of such deposit, and shall thereafter forward the said application to the proper officer of Customs.

6. Whenever an importer of dutiable liquors by sea is desirous of removing the same, otherwise than under bond, from the Customs warehouse at a port wherein they are deposited, he shall personally or by his agent tender to the proper officer of Customs the amount of import duty payable thereon under the "Customs Duties Enactment, 1898," and shall at the same time produce the receipt given to him under clause (ii) of rule 5. Upon payment of the duty and production of the receipt the said proper officer of Customs shall issue to the importer or his agent a receipt for the amount paid and also a permit, substantially in the form B annexed hereto, for the removal of the liquors on which duty has been paid, and shall send to the officer in charge of the Customs warehouse an order, substantially in the form E annexed hereto, to allow the removal of such liquors.

7. (i) Whenever an owner of dutiable liquors or his agent is desirous of removing the same under bond from a port of import or other place in the State to some other place in the Federated Malay States, he shall address to the proper officer of Customs at the port of import or other place where the liquors are stored an application, substantially in the form F annexed hereto. On receipt of the said application the proper officer of Customs shall examine the goods and endorse on the application the result of such examination. He shall then, if satisfied and if a bond shall have been given as hereinafter prescribed and delivered or duly transmitted to him, issue to the applicant a permit, substantially in the form C annexed hereto, and shall forthwith despatch a duplicate of the said permit to the proper officer of Customs at the place for which the goods are destined.

3

He shall also, if the liquors are at the time of application stored in a Customs warehouse, send to the officer in charge of such warehouse an order, substantially in the form E annexed hereto, allowing the removal of such liquors.

(ii) The remover of the liquors shall enter into a bond with one surety to be approved by the proper officer of Customs for a sum equal to the duty on the liquors, to account for them satisfactorily at the place of destination, either by paying the duty on them or by depositing them in a Customs warehouse or licensed warehouse, within the time specified in the bond. Such bond shall be delivered or transmitted to the officer empowered to issue the permit for removal.

(iii) A bond may be either in respect of the removal of a particular consignment of dutiable liquors, in which case it shall be substantially in the form G annexed hereto, or of a general nature, in which case it shall be substantially in the form H annexed hereto.

(iv) On their arrival at the place of destination the dutiable liquors shall forthwith be produced to the proper officer of Customs (notwithstanding that the time mentioned in the bond may not have expired), together with the remover's permit in form C. The proper officer of Customs shall thereupon cause the marks, quantities and description of the goods to be checked with the said permit and with the duplicate thereof forwarded to him under clause (i) of this rule.

(v) After the goods have been examined and accounted for, either by payment of duty or by deposit in a Customs warehouse or licensed warehouse, the proper officer of Customs shall endorse a certificate to that effect, substantially in the form I annexed hereto, on the remover's permit and the duplicate thereof which are referred to in clause (iv) of this rule and shall deliver the said remover's permit to the consignee and forward the duplicate thereof to the proper officer of Customs at the place of removal for record against the bond; provided that, where there has been any loss in transit which cannot be satisfactorily accounted for, the certificate shall specify the quantity lost unless the duty due thereon have been already paid.

(vi) The removal of dutiable liquors under bond shall only be allowed by rail or steamer.

8. (i) No person intending to export dutiable liquors shall remove the same for export from any Customs or licensed warehouse where they may be stored without a permit substantially in the form K annexed hereto, or otherwise than in accordance with the conditions in such permit contained.

(ii) Such permit shall be issued by the proper officer of Customs upon receipt of a requisition substantially in the form J annexed hereto, and a duplicate thereof shall be delivered to the keeper of such Customs or licensed warehouse and the exporter shall on shipping or exporting by railway such liquors procure a receipt for the same signed by the master or mate of the vessel in which the liquors are to be exported or by the station-master of the railway station from which the liquors are to be forwarded, as the case may be, to be endorsed on the said permit and shall forthwith deliver the said permit and receipt to the proper officer of Customs.

(iii) The proper officer of Customs may in his discretion, in lieu of handing to the exporter the permit issued under clause (ii) of this rule, deliver the same to any officer of Customs, who shall thereupon accompany the liquors mentioned in the permit from such Customs or licensed warehouse to the vessel on board of which or railway station from which the same are to be exported.

(iv) The proper officer of Customs may refuse to issue any permit to export dutiable liquors by any vessel until a reasonable time before such vessel may be intending to leave the port.

9. (i) No dutiable liquors intended for transshipment shall be removed from any vessel or from any Customs or licensed warehouse or placed on board any vessel except under a permit substantially in the form M annexed hereto, and in accordance with the conditions contained in such permit.

(ii) Such permit shall be issued by the proper officer of Customs upon receipt of a requisition substantially in the form L annexed hereto.

10. An officer in charge of a Customs warehouse shall retain every order which he receives to allow the removal from the warehouse of liquors under bond or on which the import duty has been paid and shall superintend the removal from the warehouse of the liquors specified in such order and shall thereafter record on the said order the fact that such liquors have been removed, with the date and hour of such removal, and shall also immediately on such removal enter in the stock book provided for that purpose such details as may be required.

11. Any dutiable liquor exceeding one gallon in quantity found in transit unaccompanied by a removal permit issued by the Customs authorities in the State or in any other of the Federated Malay States may be detained by any Customs or Excise Officer or by any railway station-master until evidence of the payment of duty has been produced.
